

Sculptural Process

Make an armature using crushed tinfoil and toothpicks

Coat your armature with clay to get the basic form molded

Shape the clay to develop and refine the form

Shaped!

Embed other materials into the clay

Use wet fingers to create the desired finish

Add details using different tools like toothpicks

Draw in finer details, making sure these lines are clean

Create other parts that can be glued on later